Press Release

March 18, 2019

The annual “All Members/All Mediums Exhibit” of the Manchester Art Association is on display at Manchester Town Hall from March 7 to June 6. The theme for this show is “Where the Heart Is”, which can relate to the artist’s hometown or something that is dear to their heart. A free reception with finger food and open to the public will be held on Friday, April 12 from 5 to 7 P.M. There are works of art from 37 artists in different media including pastel, watercolor, acrylic, photography, pen and ink, stained glass and quilling, mixed media and oil. Many of the pieces are for sale. Please visit ManchesterArt.org for information about the Association.
